Other comments or suggestions:

Ms. Shakhnoza chose a very topical topic. The thesis is based solely on literary research and available information from the region. This, on the one hand, gives the author the opportunity to draw on many literary sources, but on the other hand, it was necessary for the author to verify the relevance of the information.

In relation to the researched issue, the thesis gives a certain overview of the situation in Uzbekistan and neighboring states of the region in a new era of tourism, and by this, the development of the economy in this sector.

Unfortunately, some initial information about GDP is presented in such a way that it is not clear whether we are talking about the GDP of Uzbekistan or Russia. Although I warned the student several times about the discrepancies between the data used by different authors, unfortunately, the student did not correct these outputs data without explanation. In some passages, it is not clear whether the data describe the economic situation in Uzbekistan or the region of neighboring countries. Some sentences and clauses in the text probably come from a not entirely accurate translation from the Russian language.

The Bachelor Thesis written by Ms. Shakhnoza Khaytmuratova complies, generally, with formal requirements.

Despite the above shortcomings and taking into account that the author is not a native speaker in the English language, I recommend accepting the thesis for defense in front of the faculty committee, where the student can explain reproofs in the thesis of both me and the opponent.

Plagiarism control: The system Theses.cz has assessed the thesis as original.
