Opinion of supervisor to the course of studies and dissertation of Gertraude Müller-Ernstberger

Gertraude Müller-Ernstberger from the beginning of the study actively participated in all the study consultations necessary for completion of the doctoral studies at the Faculty of Economics. She also participated in conferences related to the dissertation topic, for example Firm and competitive environment. During her studies demonstrate diligence appointed and chosen dissertation topic careful attention.

Gertraude Müller-Ernstberger dissertation meets all the formal and substantive requirements set for this type of work. It has clearly defined targets discussed in the consultation with the contents of the dissertation supervisor. The internal presentation of dissertation thesis was held during the study at the Department .

This particular dissertation thesis has a standard structure expected in these types of theses. It is divided into seven chapters with 126 numbered pages plus Annex. Dissertation work concerns questions of relevancy and importance for further development of the intellectual property law. The Gertrude Müller-Ernstberger fulfilled and met the defined objectives in satisfactory way. In dealing with it she has demonstrated her ability to use scientific methods of research apply them in a constructive way and to work in a comprehensive way with professional literature . Her results presented in the dissertation work are exploitable both in theory and in practice..

For these reason, I fully recommend as the Supervisor, that the dissertation shall be admitted for defense before the Committee for the defense of dissertations.
