Other comments or suggestions:

The bachelor thesis deals with an interesting topic of the economic situation in Bahrain and its attractiveness for foreign investments.

First and foremost, the thesis completely lacks the absolutely essential chapters "Objectives" and "Methodology" which significantly decreases the impression of its overall avail. The absence of the chapters "Results" and "Discussion" is not even a surprise after this finding.

The overall impression of the thesis is closer to a review than to a research, therefore, I recommend the bachelor thesis to the FSE, however, I suggest the resulting mark between "good" and "failed" based on the author's defence at the examination.

Questions for thesis defence:

- 1) In your thesis, what is the theoretical part and what is the empirical/practical part?
- 2) What was your own contribution in the thesis? Does the thesis bring any of your own results?
