sometimes positive sometimes negative

No matter where woman g I think it a positive impact when it comes to sharing awareness about different material Yes because social media. It does not affect our culture whatsoever since social media targets someone's in depends on the community negative, in uneducated areas in jordan some people aren't used to seeing certain unfortunately yes, (excludir definitely negative, considering most kids get their phones at an early age (8,9), in Yes, because of Men being Both, while it should have more of a positive influence but a large portion of the Juyes yes yes, anything in whitnesses, ppl spend wayyy too much time on it social life is dead

Yes as the main attraction Negative, as we're being exposed to Western propaganda and lifestyles which ar yesyes we are, its always t positive, we more likely tend to explain our opinions and thoughts freely online an Yes because our communi Negative beacause it allows idiots to get famous and to reach higher numbers of I don't have an opinion on Positive, maybe they'll think differently

Women were objectified m Somewhat of both depends on who you follow and why you follow

A LOT. women now a negative. although social media can really help to open doors for some people an Yes sometimes, because t Depends which part of Jordan it might be a place that is full of opportunities and r Ofcourse, women are obje Both. On the one hand, social media does tend to bring people closer together ar Yes, i think women are mall think it goes both ways. social media can be negative, especially since the jorda yes, because men believe i think it's somewhere in between, with social media Jordan was able to evolve so yes i think women are obje positive effect, showing our society how societies in other countries think and their Yes because men and boy I feel like a bit of both, positively we learn more about other cultures and other income.
