

Minutes from the departmental round of defence of Tatia Kuljanishvili

Student: Tatia Kuljanishvili, MSc.

Dissertation topic: The spread and impact of non-native aquatic organisms focusing on Ponto-Caspian Region.

Supervisor: prof. Ing. Lukáš Kalous, Ph.D.

Date: 04.11.2021

Presence: prof. Iva Langrová; prof. Barták, Dr. Karel Douda, Dr. Jan Dvořák; Dr. Jakub Hlava; prof. Ivana Jankovská; Dr. Lucie Jedličková; prof. Lukáš Kalous, Dr. Oldřich Kopecký; Dr. Štěpán Kubík; Dr. Martin Kulma; Dr. Iveta Kyriánová; Dr. Lucie Panská; doc. Jiří Patoka; dr. Miloslav Petrtýl; Dr. Richard Sehnal, prof. Ondřej Slavík; Mgr. Vojtěch Vacek; doc. Jaroslav Vadlejch, doc. Vlaimír Vrabc; Ing. Jan Magdálek; Lucie Malá

Discussion:

There was one question: if there is an overlap between Georgian, Armenian and Azerbaijan legislation. The answer was: Each of the country has its own ways of treating non-native species and there are many gaps in knowledge and understanding of non-native species treatment.

There was one comment: to change the introduction.

Conclusion:

The thesis contains original results, published in peered scientific journal.

After correcting the presentation according to the comments, all present member of the department recommend the presented dissertation for defence.

In Prague 5.11.2021